*Mr.
Lowell
Johnson*

We, the graduating class of 1969, dedicate this annual to Mr. Lowell Johnson.

Mr. Johnson was raised in Pawnee City, Nebraska. He attended Nebraska Wesleyan where he received his Bachelor of Science degree.

He began his teaching career in Oxford, Nebraska where he taught for 2 years, after which he attended the University of Nebraska where he was awarded his Master's Degree. He then taught and coached for one year at Nebraska Wesleyan.

In 1962, the Johnsons moved to Plattsmouth and he began his teaching career in the Plattsmouth Public School System that Fall. He taught Modern Problems, Psychology, Driver's Education, and coached Basketball and Golf.

Mr. Johnson and his wife Mary have three sons, Greg, Jeff, and Kurt.

Mr. Johnson enjoyed teaching school and his genuine interest in the students as individuals showed through in his work.

Much as we hate to see Mr. Johnson leave, we wish him the best of luck in his new career as an Insurance and Real Estate salesman.

ACTIVITIES

Powder Puff Football Game

In order to raise funds for Homecoming, the Pep Club initiated the 1st Annual Powder Puff Football Game. The girls were divided into teams, which were dubbed the Braggers and the Freeburgers. They were coached by Mr. Freeburg, Mr. Caverzagie, Mr. Bragg, and Mr. Nash. The victors were the Braggers winning with a score of 19-0.

Cheering at the First Annual Powder Puff Football game were:

- Gary Glup
- Barry Jose
- Jim Lenox
- Tom McKnight
- Jim Poole
- Ray Peterson
- Jerry Wallace

Boosting spirit at the Pep Rally were Rob Hackwith, Jim Poole, Gary Glup, Jim Lenox, John Fischer, and Ed Johnson.

Go to it Fannie Freeburg and Bouncin' Betty Bragg!

Up, up and away!

Homecoming '68 was highlighted by the crowning of Queen Debbie Wallace and King Ted Grosshans. Chosen by the popular vote of the student body, these two reigned proudly over the Homecoming Festivities.

The Homecoming Dance was a great success, partially due to the rhythmic beats of The Commodores.

Past King and Queen smile as they dance by.

Crownbearers Donna Wallace and Jeff Johnson pose after they played their part in the coronation.

Junior-Senior Banquet

The magic of "Hawaiian Sunset" began at 6:30 Saturday night, May 17.

The Reverend Gene Swim of the First Baptist Church in Plattsmouth, gave the Invocation.

Sophomore Prom servers, dressed in brightly colored grass skirts and loins, served the Juniors, Seniors, members of the faculty, and guests. The menu consisted of grapefruit juice, ham, potatoes, corn, green salad, milk, and for dessert, cake.

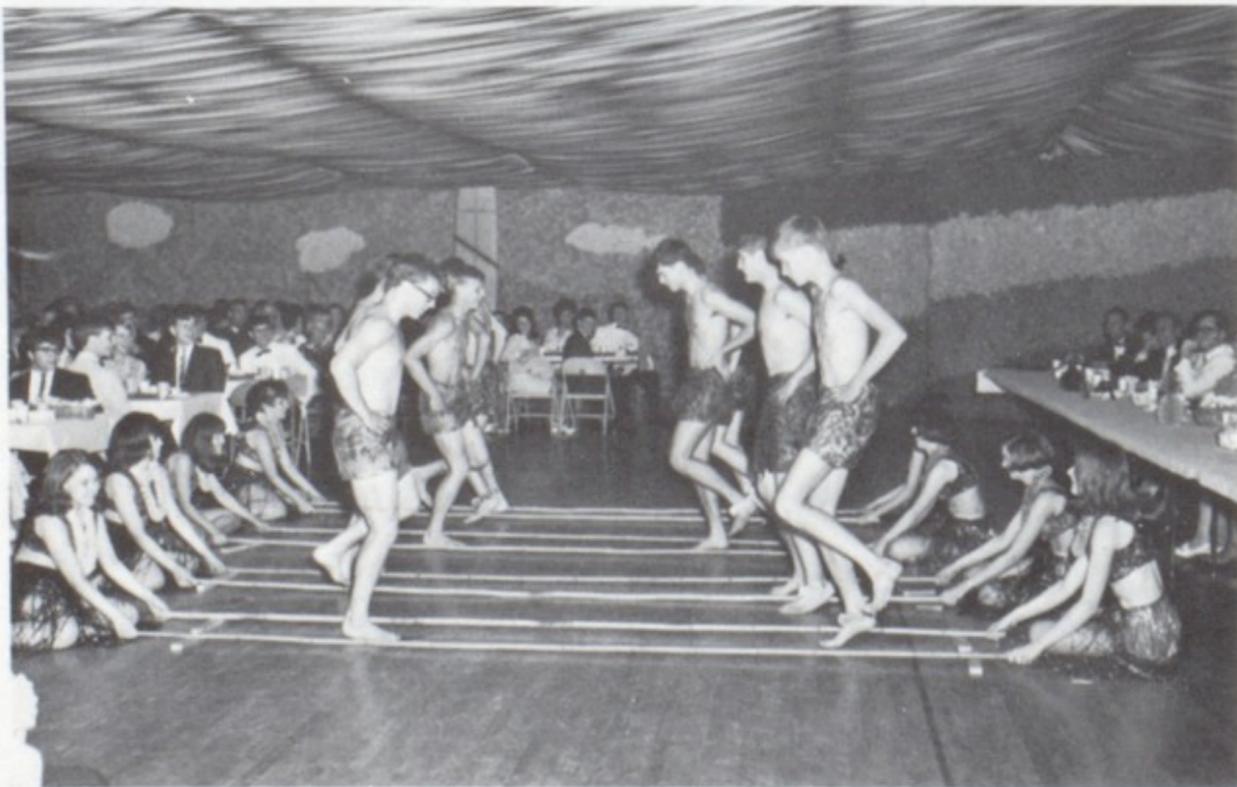

Junior Class president, Kevin Case, welcomed everyone to the Junior-Senior Banquet and introduced the guests at the head table. At this time, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Nienhueser, Junior Class sponsors, were presented with a thank-you gift from the Juniors.

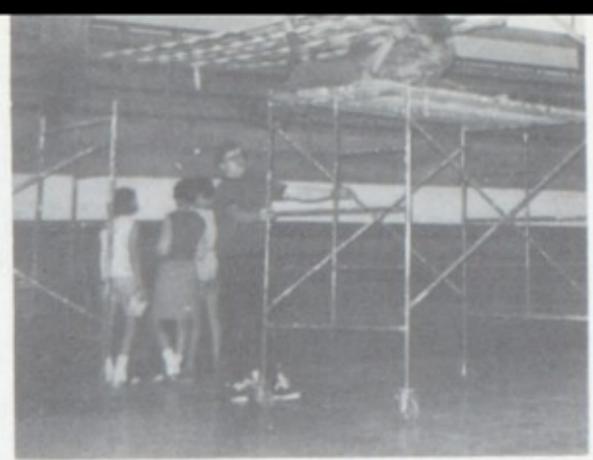

After the introductions were completed, Rob Hackwith, Senior Class president; thanked the Junior class for their efforts, on behalf of the Senior Class.

A special thank-you went to Mr. Dale Strobel, PHS counselor, for his help and understanding this year at PHS.

Next on the program was the night's entertainment. The Sophomore Prom servers performed the traditional Hawaiian, tinkling dance.

The guest speaker for the evening was Mr. Dennis Jackson, the head of "Operation Bridge" in Omaha and counselor at West Side High School in Omaha. His talk was entitled "Where it is . . . Where you're going."

HAWAIIAN SUNSET

Saturday, May 17, the Jr. class of 1970 presented the Seniors with their Prom.

A beautiful sunset threw its rays over the transformed gym.

Over 200 people danced to the music of the Dick Cavich band.

Past royalty, Mary Peterson and Greg Morehead, were on hand to crown the new king and queen, Tom Welstead and Marge Waterman.

Prom royalty for 1969 was: Juniors, Sharon Grove, JoAnne Jacobs, Jim Poole and Dave Aschenbrenner. Seniors, Gail Sullivan and Terry Butler.

At 12:00, with regrets from all who attended, the doors to Hawaiian Sunset closed.

And so, another successful Prom had passed.

Prom attendants: Dave Aschenbrenner, Jim Poole, Terry Butler, King Tom Welstead, Queen Marge Watermann, Gail Sullivan, Sharon Grove, JoAnne Jacobs. BACK: past king and queen Greg Morehead and Mary Peterson.

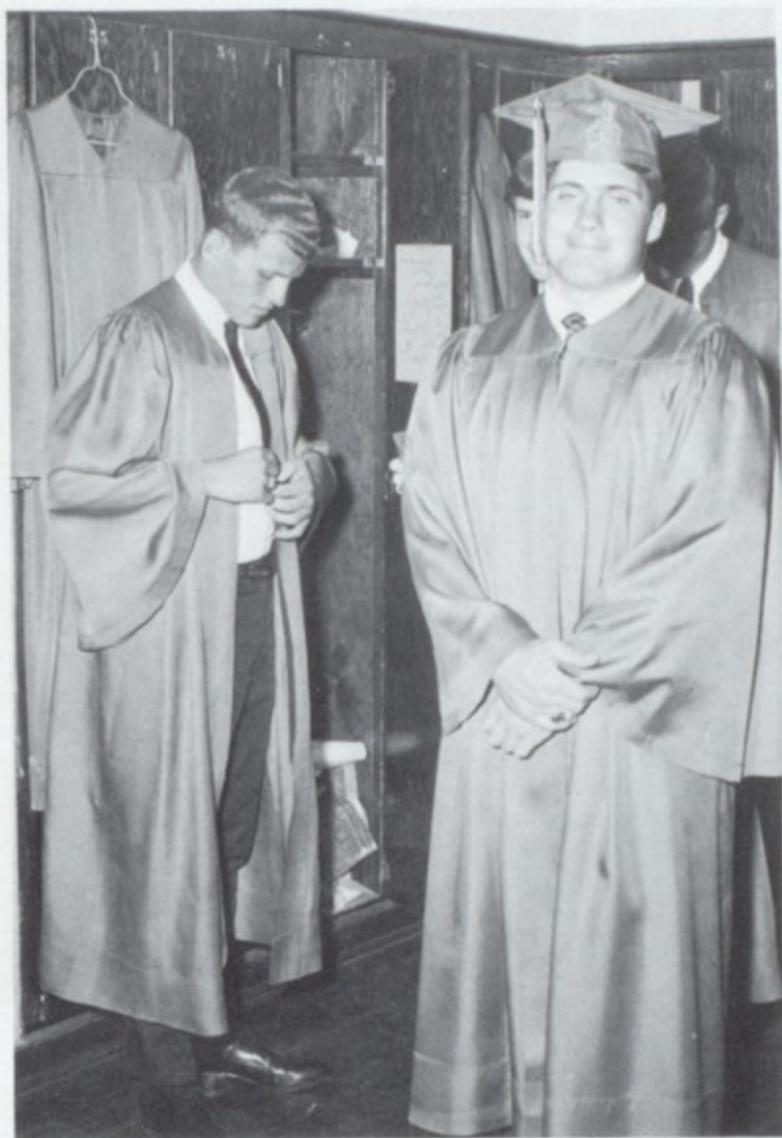

King Tom and Queen Marge lead the royal dance.

Kay Collins and Nancy Wehrbein guard the punch bowl.
