dedication

We the annual staff of 1970 wish to dedicate this yearbook to Mr. Rasmussen for his devotion to the school, its students, and its educational standards.

Mr. Rasmussen graduated from Dannebrog High School, in Dannebrog, Nebraska. He maintained his Bachelor's Degree from Kearney State College and his Master's Degree from Missouri University.

He has taught classes in several schools throughout Nebraska in the past eighteen years, this being his fifth in the Plattsmouth school system.

We wish to express our thanks to Mr. Rasmussen for his interest and encouragement.

Mrs. Rasmussen joins her husband on an afternoon outing.

Mr. Rasmussen graduated with a total class of sixteen students. He was the class president his senior year, sports reporter his junior year, and on the annual staff his senior year. He was also in Boy's Glee all four years of high school and in the class plays his junior and Senior years.

ART DEPARTMENT

The creative embers of many talented students will be ignited to flaming success through this enlightening course. Although the art club is a newly established organization in the school, it is sure to accomplish many artistic goals.

ENGLISH DEPARTMENT

The key to better understanding, through better comprehension of the English language, is offered to the students of Plattsburgh High School by its fine English curriculum. Here, the interested student is exposed to cultures of world wide writing in literature, as well as an excellent background in the field of grammar.

Mrs. Mary Skalak

HISTORY DEPARTMENT

The key to the future is obtained through the doors of the past. These doors are being opened to the students of Plattsburgh High. The future, as well as the past, is explored in Modern Problems, American History, and World History. These courses are of great value to the students, in order to understand today's world as opposed to yesterday.

Mr. Robert Priebe
Geography

Mr. Alvin Lowe

SPEECH DEPARTMENT

The speech course available at Plattsmouth High enables the student to gain self-confidence and prestige in public speaking. Many find this course to be extremely rewarding in future years.

Mrs. Stella Schroeder
Speech

HOME ECONOMICS DEPARTMENT

The future homemaker will value the excellent homemaking course offered at Plattsmouth High School. Through training and skilled guidance in foods, clothing, and child care, students achieve many outstanding goals, set to the high standards of adult living.

Miss Janet Wigton
Vocational Homemaking

Mrs. Mickey Anson

FOREIGN LANGUAGES

French and Spanish are offered to those students who are highly interested in national affairs, traditions, and customs. Students broaden their perspective by comparing their way of life with that of the youth in other countries.

Mrs. Christine Callum
Spanish and French

MATH DEPARTMENT

Mr. Rasmussen, head of the math and science departments, says this of Plattsmouth's Mathematics program: "We compare real well with other schools of our size, both in programs we offer and in the caliber of students we graduate."

icye exchange student sabina karsten

Sabina Karsten from Herford in North Rhine-Westfalia, Germany, came to Plattsburgh as a foreign exchange student to live with the Milo Perry family.

Sabina's one year stay was made possible by the efforts of the Plattsburgh community and the ICYE Committee.

She attended the Plattsburgh High School as a Senior. When she returns to Herford, she plans to continue her education to become a teacher.

Going to Plattsburgh High and being under a completely different school system was a good experience for Sabina and for the students of P.H.S.

Throughout the years, the PHS Band has spelled Pride for our Plattsburgh community. This year the band strengthened their reputation by winning their 5th consecutive Superior at Pershing, tying the record. The addition of six pompom girls to the ranks gave the band an extra attraction. Band trips have always been fun, but this year, thanks to the energetic boost of the Band Parents, a weekend trip to Chicago gave the band members memories to keep. They were selected to march in the Christmas Parade in Chicago over the Thanksgiving vacation. Without a doubt the PHS Band has brought pride to the Plattsburgh community.

Happy birthday Mr. Herweg!

fellowship of christian athletes

This year at Plattsmouth, a new organization has been started. Unlike most organizations, this one is restricted to athletes only.

It was founded in 1958 and in the last few years has grown to 1,000 high school "Huddles" and over 500 college "Fellowships." At the University of Nebraska, Joe Orduna and Randy Reeves are Captain and Co-Captain of their fellowship. The list of top name College and Pro Athletes on the membership is long.

The purpose is "To confront athletes and coaches, and through them, the youth of our nation with the challenge and adventure of following Christ, participation in His Church and serving Him through our vocations."

This summer the FCA will hold national conferences for athletes and coaches. Twelve such conferences are being offered this year. Six boys from Plattsmouth have expressed a desire to attend a national conference in Estes Park, Colorado. Next fall, these boys will speak to city organizations about the conference.

devil highlights

The Devils opened the new football campaign at home against traditionally tough Ralston. After relinquishing a T.D. on the first play, the Devils' defense stiffened and allowed the Rams just two more T.D.'s. Jerry Wallace punched across single touchdowns in the middle periods, but a Devils' rally fell short by a 22-12 count.

The following week Crete journeyed to town. The Cards slashed for two quick scores and held on as the Devils showed lack of offensive punch again. Wallace scored his third T.D. of the season in the second quarter, but Plattsmouth dropped a tough 12-6 decision.

Against Omaha Bryan the Devils took early leads of 6-0 and 13-6 but fell to a second and third quarter avalanche as the Bears pounded a tough Devil defense for five T.D.'s leading to a 33-13 verdict.

In a driving rain the following week Plattsmouth traveled to Auburn. Again the Devils scored first before falling to a fourth quarter rally by the Bulldogs, but showed great improvement over previous weeks. The final count was a soggy 14-6.

The Devils were pounded early and often by the tough Falls City Tigers who ran up a 25-0 half-time lead. The Devils played an even second half, but dropped their Homecoming tilt by a 31-6 margin.

With an aggressive defense and an adequate offense, Plattsmouth snapped a sixteen game losing streak at the expense of the Syracuse Rockets. Dave Aschenbrenner scored on a long run and an outstanding punt return for all the scoring in a 12-0 whitewashing of the Rockets.

The following week the Devils ran into a Nebraska City team ranked among the state's top ten. The Devils kept it close the first half but fell to a second half onslaught by the Pioneers and fell by a 51-6 count.

In the final game of the season the Blue Devils journeyed to Fairbury to do battle with the heavily favored Jeffs. After falling behind by 16-0 early in the initial period, the Devils scrapped back and trailed only 16-12 at halftime. The blue and white thoroughly outplayed the home team although neither squad could manage a T.D. in the second half, and the Devils walked away very unsatisfied losers by the same halftime score.

Highlights of the season were long dashes by Ashenbrenner and the greatly improved aerial attack sparked by quarterback Gary Glup firing to receivers Charlie Schumacher, Tom Aylor, and Rick Collins. Sophomore fullback Bill Kephart gained valuable experience and promises to provide the Devils with plenty of offensive punch next year.

Devils and Pioneers waiting for the results

The Devil Crosscountry team, only the school's second, had great success under Head Coach Lowe. Never finishing on the losing half, the Devil runners won three duals with Papillion, Syracuse, and arch-rival Nebraska City.

In major meets and invitationals, the Devils finished third in the Millard and Elkhorn St. John's Invitationals and the Twin Rivers and AKSARBEN meets.

The Devils finished a close second in the tough Nebraska City Invitational and barely missed a spot in the state meet by ending up fifth place in the District meet.

The Devil roundballers, lacking height and experience, had a disappointing season. The only wins for the Devils were an easy 64-41 conquest of Omaha Gross, and a 57-50 overtime upset of Nebraska City in the AKSARBEN Conference Tourney at Ralston.

Seniors on the squad were Barry Jose, Keith Wilson, Kevin Case, and Charlie Schumacher.

The Devil wrestlers, after finishing a lofty second in the tough Omaha North Invitational, were hurt by injuries the rest of the season. Kurt Grosshans, Tom Aylor, Dave Molinaro, Mark Brink, and Gary Gray were all injured and lost for part of the season. Ted Osterholm dislocated his elbow and was out for the year.

Despite these injuries, the Devils placed fourth in the Twin Rivers Conference meet, and finished fifth in the prestigious AKSARBEN Conference meet.

Aylor and Grosshans led a Devil congregation to the Districts at Schuyler that gained the seventh spot. After winning their District titles, Tom and Kurt placed fourth in the state meet.

The 1971 squad promises to be tough, as Bob (Louie) Halmes was the only senior on the team this year.

Tom gets position for a takedown.

Devil Duo places fourth at State!

Kurt gains praise after his 28th straight win.

Leading scorer and most valuable trackman, Rick Collins, plans some strategy with Coach McKnight. At the State Meet in Kearney, Rick placed second in the 440 (51.4) and fourth in the 880 (2.01) for six of the seven Devil points.

track 70

TOP RIGHT: District Title Winning Mile Relay Team: Kevin Case, Ken Repair, Barry Jose, and Rick Collins. Best time—3:30.2.

BOTTOM RIGHT: School record holders in the two mile relay, this all junior quartet of Dewey Strobel, Tom Aylor, Tom McKnight, and Jerry Wallace promises better things to come in the future. They placed fifth in the State meet. New record—8.21.4.

After an early bout with mono-nucleosis, Tim battled back to win the District Title in the 100 yard dash and place second in the 220. The Devils overpowered Lincoln Pius X for the District Title.

Tom cruises home for a win in the mile.

How can you lose with a coach like this?

The cheerleaders of America march forward: T. Aylor, K. Winters, G. Siewert, R. Collins, B. Jose, V. Chudy, R. Hostetter.

Mr. Mitteis offers a hand of congratulations.

sweetheart lane

February 14 set the day for the long awaited Sweetheart Dance. It gave the girls the opportunity to grab the guy they wanted. They danced both fast and slow to the music of the Reign.

Dave Aschenbrener and Diana Duey reigned as king and queen while two members of each class served as their attendants.

Attendants: Lorraine Jensen, Ed Todd, Lee Ann Blackwell, Mike Slattery, King Dave, Queen Diana, Barry Jose, Sharon Grove, Barb Grove, and Allen Schmidt. Jim Poole and Marla Peterson served as crowners.

"down in the valley"

The Plattsmouth High auditorium was the action scene on March 10 and 12 as the Vocal Department presented "Down in the Valley." Diane Bucholz starred as Jeannie Parsons, a young girl in love with Brack Weaver, portrayed by Dave Johnson. Thomas Bouche, played by Mike Ford, was also in love with Jeannie. In a street brawl, Brack kills Thomas and is waiting for the gallows.

The success of this play is attributed to the many long hours of hard work by Mr. Nelson, the director; Jo Ann Jacobs, the Assistant Director; the Vocal Department, and many other students.

penny carnival

On April 11, the gym opened its doors to the Penny carnival. Booths were sponsored by various clubs in the school. One big event was the Beautiful Legs contest; the winner being Bill Kephart. S. Thiede, D. Wildman, M. Vondras and M. Slattery find happiness at the Senior's Marriage Booth.

The Student Council's jail had to be strong to hold Debbie Sikora.

camelot

The Juniors, under the supervision of Mr. Larry Neinhueser, Miss Janet Wigton and Mrs. Mandy Toner, innovated the high school gym into the medieval setting of Camelot. The Juniors went to a lot of hard work and the Seniors really appreciate the nice Prom they had May 9.

Tom Welstead and Marge Waterman, last year's king and queen, crowned King Doug Stander and Queen Kathy Fitzpatrick. The Junior attendants were Nancy Nielson, Mike Slattery, Mary Vondras and Tom McKnight. Senior attendants were Jim Poole, Diana Duey, Jim McKnight and Sandy Holman.

The Prom Servers this year were: R. Wilson, M. Howe, J. Gold, J. Lepert, J. Herfordt, C. Steele, K. Faris, B. Campbell, G. Steppat, A. Schmidt, B. Kephart, T. Sharp, G. Hahn, D. Pelzer, G. Smith, and D. Clark.

The Invocation was given by Reverend Walter Hartman of the First Lutheran Church in Plattsmouth. Jerry Wallace, President of the Junior Class, welcomed everyone to the banquet. Miss Wigton, Mrs. Toner and Mr. Neinhueser were presented with gifts of appreciation from the Junior Class. Barry Jose, Senior Class president, thanked the Juniors and their sponsors for the accomplishments. Diana Duey spoke on all the things that have happened in the past four years, just hitting the highlights. Entertainment was by Dr. David Goss, a professor of Nebraska University, who sang to the theme of Medieval Music. The band parents produced a delicious meal, and the Prom Servers served it. The banquet was a very enjoyable one.

King Doug and Queen Kathy

Marge Waterman and Tom Welstead give up their reign to Kathy and Doug.

Reigning Queen Kathy and King Doug lead the dance.

Tom Osborne was the speaker.

"True Grip"

Don't get all choked up about it, Barry.

Those who received awards were: Tim Younker, Kevin Case, Dave Aschenbrener, Charlie Schumacher, Mike Slattery, Rick Collins, Tom Aylor, Kurt Grosshans, Jerry Wallace, Barry Jose, and Ron Hostetter. Congratulations are in order for these fine young men.

athletic banquet

Monday, May 11, was the night our outstanding athletes received their much deserved awards. Tom Osborne was the host speaker and Ron Hostetter, president of the Lettermans Club, also spoke. We are really proud of our athletes especially Charlie Schumacher, the only Senior to receive a golf award. The menu was prepared by the band parents and served by pep club girls. The evening was enjoyed by all.

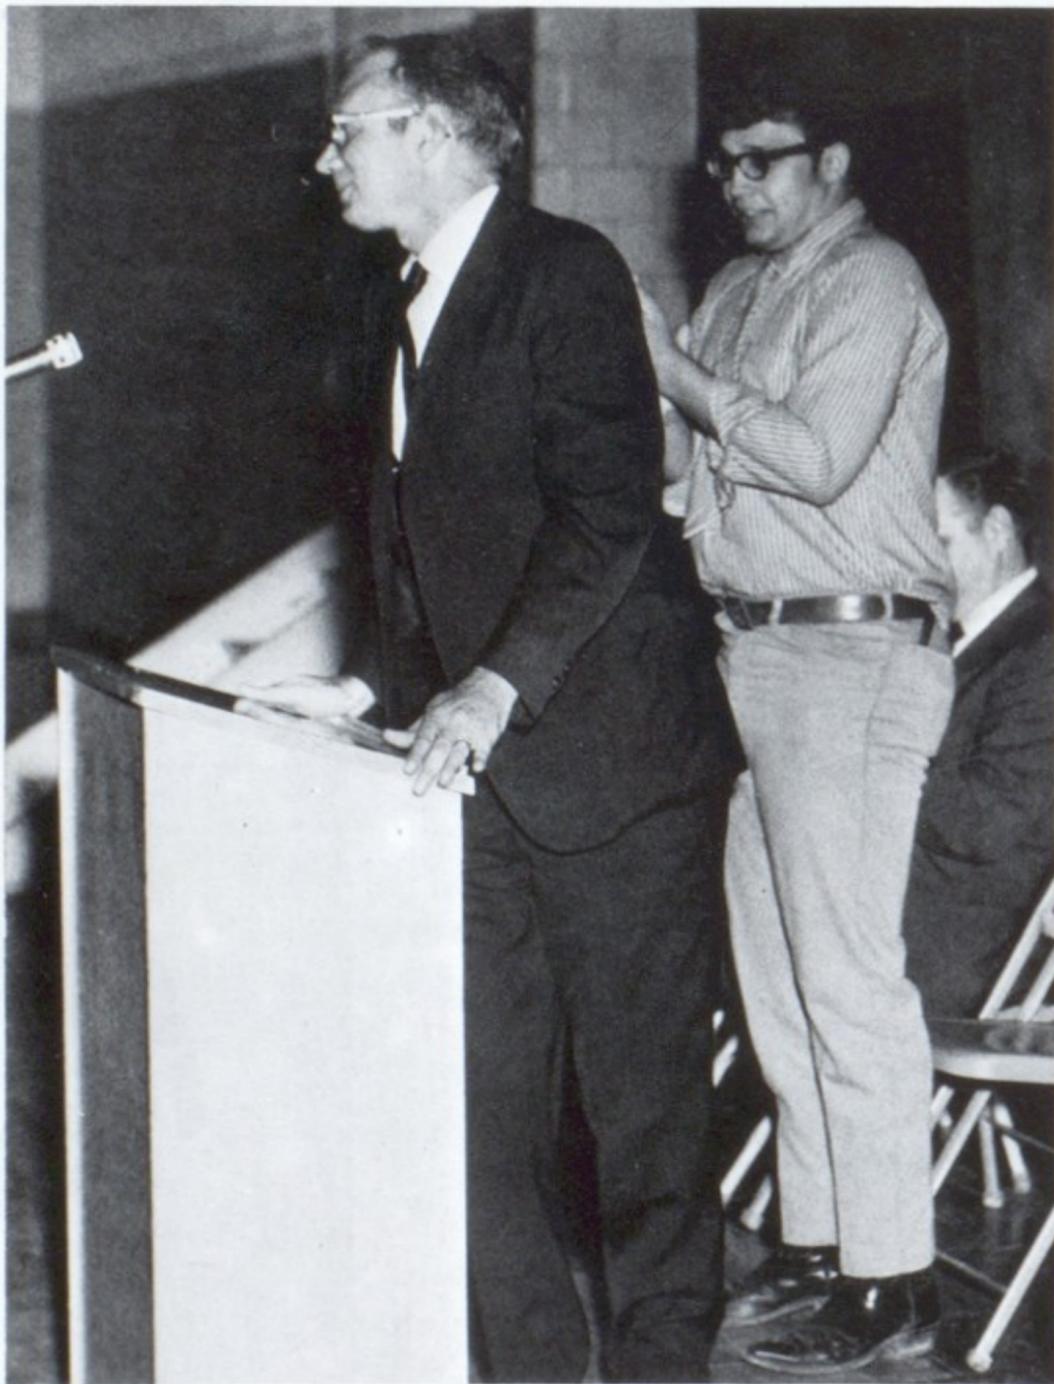

Pep Club president presents charms to cheerleaders.

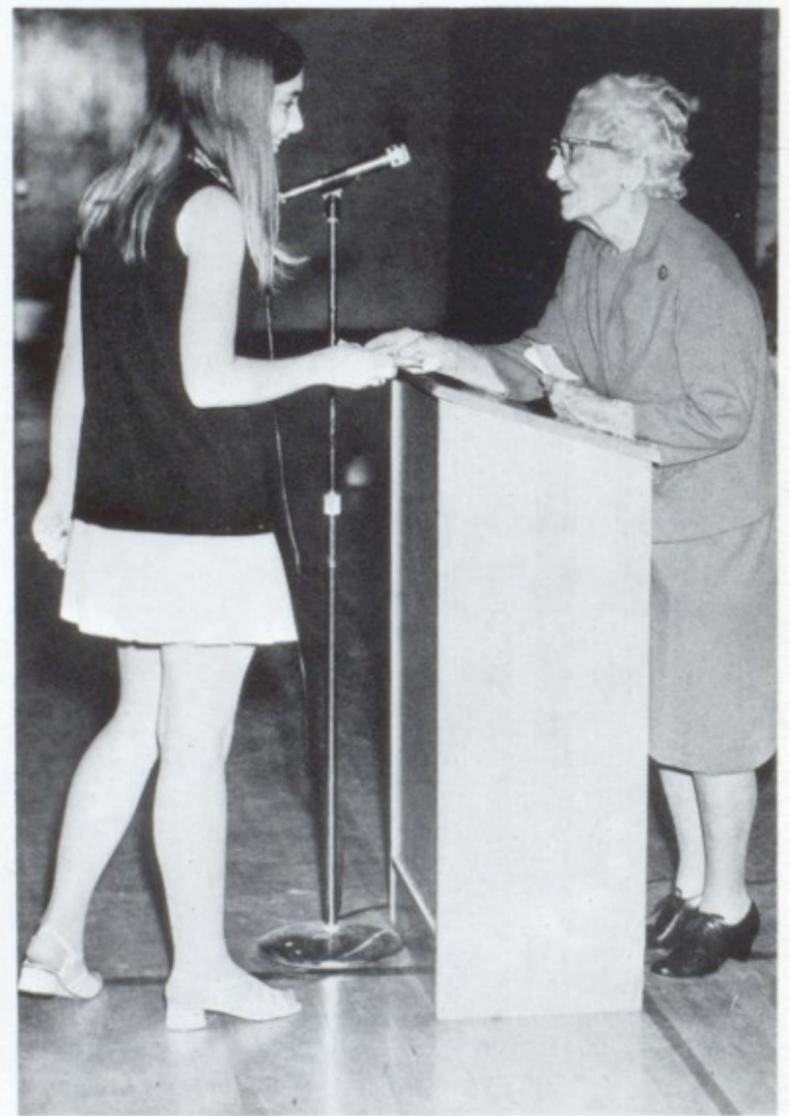

Mr. Herweg presents band awards.

Debbie Steward receives award as outstanding vocalist.

Mr. Rasmussen receives the Platonian Dedication.

The DAR award is presented to Brenda Engle, the student with the highest average in American history.

honors convocation

graduation

Mr. Finch presented Jim McKnight the Rotary Scholarship of $200.

Mary Schneider presented Kevin Case the Roger Schneider Good Citizenship Award of $25.

On May 26, 97 seniors completed their career at P.H.S. 12 of these seniors had the honor of wearing a gold cord signifying that they are honor graduates. Debbie Spangler was valedictorian and Kevin Case was salutatorian.

Instead of a speaker this year, five seniors spoke on the topic, "Into the Seventies." The Madrigal and Stage Band under the direction of Mr. Nelson and Mr. Herweg, presented "Give Me Your Tired Your Poor," "Aquarius," and "Battle Hymn of the Republic." Various awards and scholarships were announced, and presentation of diplomas provided the highlight of the evening.

The five seniors who spoke are shown in the top picture: Janet Evers, Kevin Case, Debbie Spangler, Barry Jose (seated), and Diana Duey (speaking).

What Will I Leave?

What will I leave when I leave these halls?
The excitement of first days these last four falls.
And what will I give to those entering in?
The hope of things precious about to begin.

What will I leave as I walk out that door?
Would wisdom be mine had I tried a bit more?
What will I give to those entering in?
The hope of things precious about to begin.

What will I do when I must say good-bye?
Will I feel that a part of me is about to die?
What will I say to those taking my place?
Will I wish them luck as they begin this race?

I'll think of crowds and the games we've had Perhaps at first it will seem a bit sad.
But I'll remember I must give up all of this
And maybe won't notice all I have to miss.

What will I leave when I leave this school;
Have I used this building as education's tool?
What will I leave those about to learn?
Will I let them know they've the torch to let burn?

What will happen to the school spirit I leave now?
Will it keep its gleam—It must somehow.
The smiles, and jokes, and all our friends,
Will they be the same when our schooldays end?

What of the clubs and the dances too?
Will they be fun without me, without you?
Will the teachers and classes still be the same
When the roll call no longer includes my name?

Of course, the school will do fine without me.
But I'll miss it—that's plain to see.
The future will be mine with better things ahead,
But I'd gladly trade them for high school years instead.

The school song still will ring in my ears
As I walk out these doors after four great years.
But high school's only a step along life's way.
And being an adult is great, so they say.

What will I leave when I leave Plattsburgh High
What makes it so hard to say good-bye?
Perhaps I'll be sad when I walk out that door,
But I'll see in a moment what the future has in store.
