SENIORS IN ARIZONA!

Unity

The Senior class of 2003, with the addition of Mr. Dommel, Mariah, and Lucy, pose for the camera in Winslow, Arizona. (Right)

On November 6, 2002 the "Class of 2003" began their adventure to Jack Rabbit, Arizona. Our journey included stops in Oklahoma City, OK and Albuquerque, NM. After hours in the vans, we finally arrived at the Naomi House. For six days the seniors witnessed "God's Love" first hand. Although we brought many gifts for the children and worked hard, we left feeling "more blessed" than they will ever know.

 High School Retreat Highlights *****

On September 13, 2002, the high school 9-11 students journeyed to Grampa's Farm for the annual "High School Retreat." Many events took place during the retreat. One highlight was having Chapel in the loft of the barn, where Monte Evans was our inspirational speaker. Other activities included lunch, carpet pool, football and catching up with the latest news with friends.

TO BE OR NOT TO BE YOURSELF

On the evening of the 12th of October, Central Christian High School hosted Homecoming 2002. The gym became a beautiful escape from homework and school. The evening was full of entertainment, energy, and many different costumes. The event posed a time to just hang out with classmates and relax. Special thanks to the seniors, staff, and parents for all of their hard work and dedication for making the evening a special night.

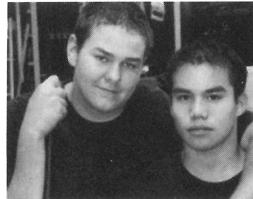

HOMECOMING 2002

What are they looking at? Russell and Daniel are shocked at some of the costumes worn at Homecoming.

Simon Says? Jason is surprised at the sight of Mr. Hix standing on his head as Aaron laughs hysterically.

Friends Forever!?

Janna, Charis, and Anne all group together for one last picture together at Classic. As seniors they know Classic is one of the last major events before their graduation. (Below)

"A Night at the Villa"

This year Classic was held at the Lo Sole Mio. The Juniors were again in charge of everything. The room was beautifully set up and had the look of almost being outside in a little Villa.

Entertainment was a little different this year. A little unprepared and unexperienced the entertainment committee struggled to figure out what to do. They finally pulled together a video mocking the tv show Max X. Let's just be happy they had an edited version. Also they had all the senior guys compete to be "Mr. Central Christian" by participating in many tasks. Eating jello with vinegar, building towers with cards, and making poems about our school were just a few of the tasks they had to face to own the very coveted title of "Mr. Central Christian." Needless to say the entertainment of this year's Classic will go down in the record books.....As what? Well that you can ask those who went. :) As one alumni, who attended, said, "What do you call your prom again?....Classic? Well yes it was definitely classic."

The seniors were also appreciated that night. Each senior was presented with a rose, a key chain, and a bag filled with candy. They were sent off with love and hopes for what lies ahead.

Baccalaureate Ceremony

The Central Christian Schools class of 2003 celebrated Baccalaureate on Saturday, May 17th at the Omaha Chinese Christian Church. The evening started when each graduate lighted a candle to represent the light of Jesus inside of us. Graduates thanked parents, friends, teachers, and their classmates for the help they received in order to get them to the point of graduation. The special evening was complimented and completed by Mrs. York, who looked back upon the years of the graduating class of '03.

Spiritual Emphasis Week

And

Praise and Worship Night

Rick Lorimer was our wonderful spiritual emphasis speaker this year. He was able to open our minds and hearts to what the Lord had in store for us as Christians.

Dirk Ruyf : "I liked his enthusiasm."

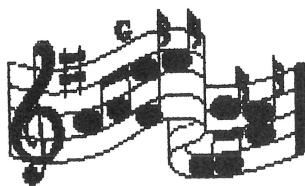

Kelly Foster : "The speaker was funny and had a lot of energy. He got me excited about attacking."

Mrs. Eskam : "We had an awesome speaker and a variety of music time."

(Top Three)

Mr. York welcomes all of the families to the annual Praise and Worship Night. (Right)

Many families were able to come to Praise and Worship Night. The night began with singing "PRAISES" to God. We thanked God for all he has done for our school. (Right)

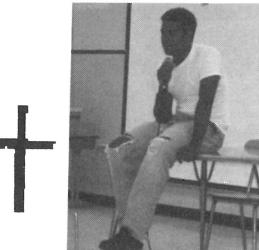

Speakers

Pam Yaksich spoke on how we need to be watered by God alone to become great trees and produce much fruit. If we aren't we become wimpy, dried out stumps.

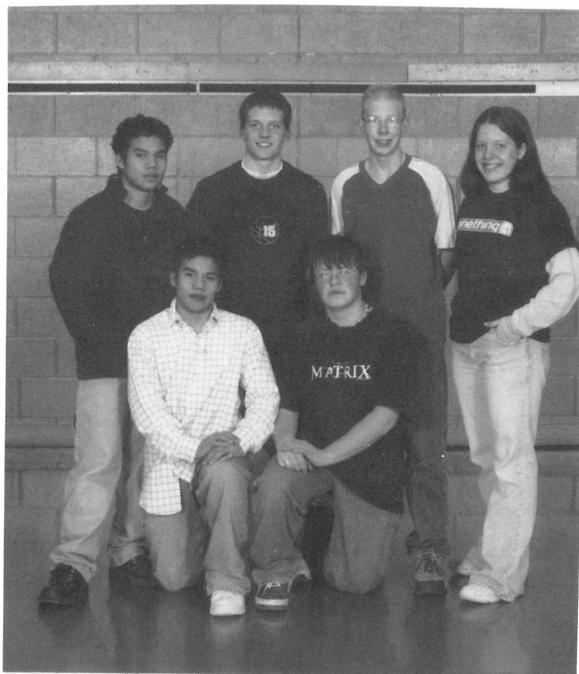

Miss Thorson was one of our first chapel speakers. She spoke about her missions trip to India and their enormous need for compassion and Christ.

Russel gives his testimony of what Christ did in his life during the Senior Missions trip. Many others spoke and did skits during the senior chapel.

The trombone Trubadores performed for us during our Christmas chapel. They showed off their talents by juggling and playing at the same time.

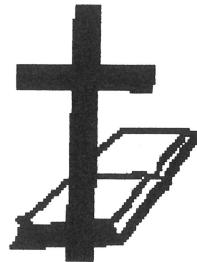

This year has been full of many interesting and inspiring speakers. Above are just a few snippets of the speakers we have had. With such limited space we couldn't even begin to cover all the messages God has spoken through each of them. Many have spoke of how much potential our generation holds for God. God truly must have something in store for us.

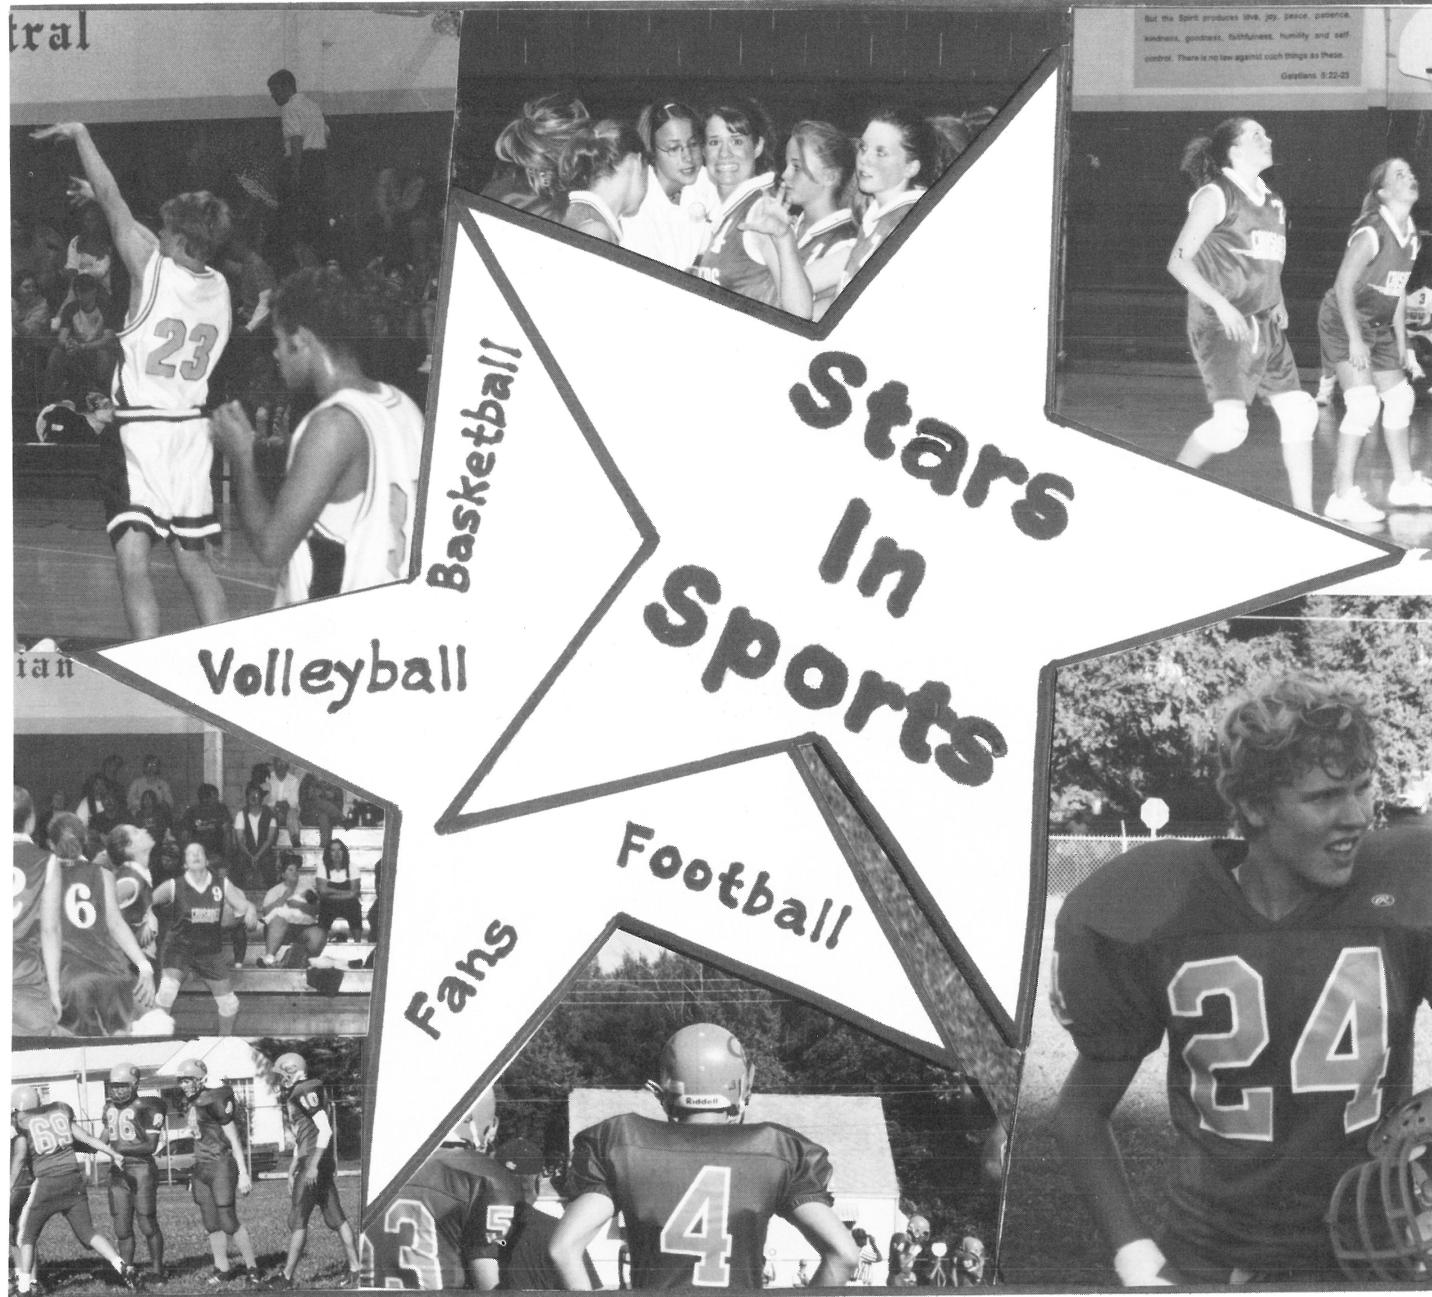

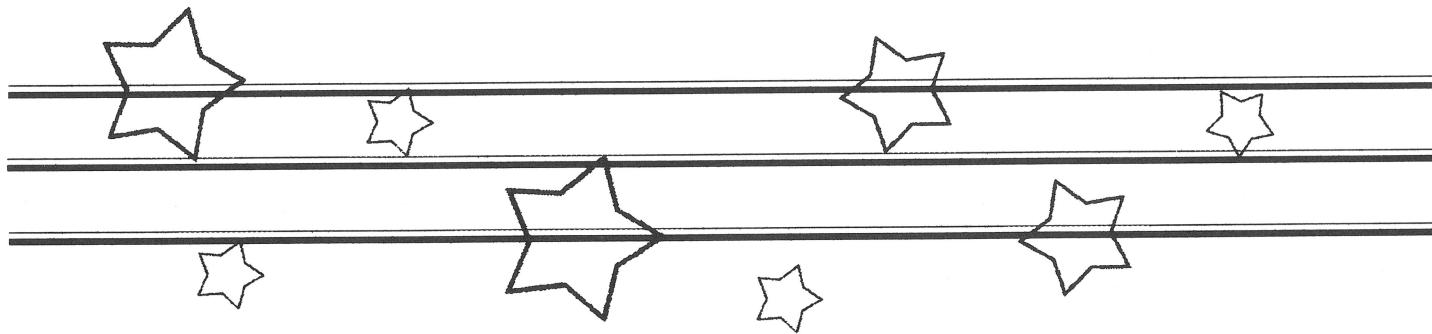

The worship band (or group as some would say) struggled a bit at the beginning of the year. With the lack of participation (at first) Sharon struggled, but pulled it off everytime. Finally people started to step up to bat and join the worship team. Now with Nick on lead mike, Jeremiah, Elijah, and Sharon singing, Craig on guitar, and the tremendous help of Eric on the slides they are now a thriving worship team leading the school head first into spiritual warfare.

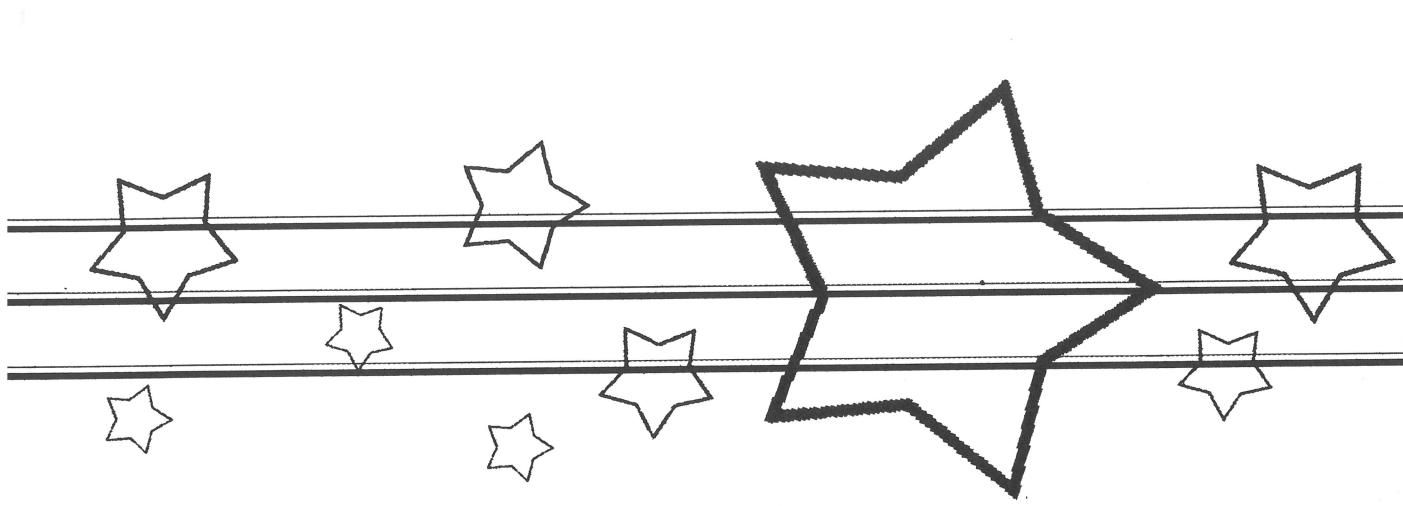

Melissa, Sharon, Sarah, and Melody all show their great anticipation waiting for chapel to begin.

Many CCS students have part time jobs. The students have decided that if they want something, they should buy it themselves. Many students work with food, in department stores, or telemarketing. Most CCS students work at a fast food place. No matter where or what the job, CCS students are working hard for the money.
