FESTIVAL

cbbc it's about the call.

CBC has this mission and only this mission:
to train ministers and missionaries for relevant ministry in the 21st century.

If you have received the call, if you have accepted the challenge,
if you have prepared to commit your life to full-time service to God, CBC is waiting for you.

Do not lose sight of the Vision God has given you.
Immerse yourself in surroundings conducive to spiritual growth and servanthood.

Keep your focus. Don't be distracted.
Do you hear it? cbc is waiting for you.

Welcome from Rick Lorimer

Welcome to the 2004 National Fine Arts Festival! We have an electrifying week ahead of us with an unbelievable schedule. Being in Texas, where “everything is big,” only adds to this immense experience.

Your hard work and preparation for your District Fine Arts Festival has paid off and we are excited that you are here at the national festival. While you are here, take advantage of the opportunities to further develop your gifts – learn from others by watching other presentations, attending workshops, and being a part of the choir and orchestra. This is also a great opportunity to develop new relationships, encourage one another through your ministry gifts, and grow in the Lord.

Fine Arts exists to help you discover and develop your ministry gifts. It is exciting to see God use Fine Arts all across America and I’m excited about what He is doing in your life. I pray that during this week, not only will you learn more about your God given talents, but that you will also learn more about God’s will and purpose for your life.

This year we provide many opportunities for you in the schedule. Monday morning begins the on-site registration. The evening will conclude with our Opening Rally, which is mandatory. Besides giving you a few special instructions, plan on the rally being a special time of devoting our week and ourselves to God. As a reminder, all registrants are a part of the 2004 Austin experience. Your registration allows you admission to all the workshops and the evening services on Tuesday, Wednesday and the late-night concert Thursday evening with Sanctus Real after the Christian Band final round showcase. You will not want to miss these awesome services.

The Celebration Service will be held Friday, August 6, in Exhibit Halls 2 and 3 at 4:00 p.m. We will be honoring our top three participants in each category, one of which will receive the Award of Merit. We will also be giving an “Honorable Mention” in each of the Exhibition categories. We are excited about the many live presentations and the performance of our 2004 National Fine Arts choir and orchestra. You don’t want to miss this service! It will be an evening with thousands of Fine Arts students, parents, friends and leaders from all across the country. What an incredible event!

Names and photos of the 2004 National Fine Arts staff are included in this schedule book. If you should have any questions, we are here to serve you. We believe in you and the gifts God has given you. We want to assist you in any way we can.

Please read the schedule book thoroughly and carefully. There is vital information that you don’t want to overlook. We are so excited about this Festival! We have been praying for you, and we pray the Lord will bless you and your time here at the National Fine Arts Festival, making it a memorable and meaningful experience.

Sincerely,

Rick Lorimer
National Ministry Development Director

2004 Workshops

Ten Secrets to Succeeding in Your Future Profession

Gary Hoyt

Aug. 5 4:00 & 5:00 p.m.

Room 12B

Have you ever wondered why some people thrive while others seem to dive? Whether your future vocation is in ministry, business, or industry, you need to understand the underlying – and often hidden – culture of the environment you will soon face. This session will be packed with solid biblical and practical tools to help you soar in life after Fine Arts.

Comedy: Comedy That Makes Sense

Jeff Jenkins

Aug. 5 4:00 & 5:00 p.m.

Room 9AB

In this workshop you will learn how to effectively use comedy in your sketches, monologs and life. This workshop will bring fresh insight and practical knowledge of the world of funny.

Guitar: From Practice to Performance-- The Practicality of Practice

Noel Rosa

Aug. 4 4:00 & 5:00 p.m.

Room 10A

This fun-filled workshop will cover the methodology and discipline of practice and how to take rehearsal time to the performance stage. It will also cover practice and performance techniques plus secrets on making your practice fun and a time to look forward to. Session also includes listening to other artists and the secrets of pulling off a great live performance.

Sign Language: The Nuts and Bolts of Interpreting Music, Stories and Poetry in American Sign Language

Chery Besette.

Aug. 4 4:00 p.m.

Room 6A

In this workshop Chery will show basic concepts in ASL, including: classifiers, negations, directionality of signs, use of space and much more. Great for people already involved in sign language or those who want to begin learning about this art.

Sign Language: Culturally Rich Signs for Interpreting Christian Music

Chery Besette

Aug. 4 5:00 p.m.

Room 6A

Learn the art of interpreting music in this workshop. You will learn to interpret common song phrases and also the ten commandments of Interpreting Music in American Sign Language.

A Lifetime in Three Minutes: an approach to Monologues

Michelle Bruner

Aug. 5 4:00 p.m.

Room 15

These short pieces are much more than just a tool for casting directors! When approached correctly they are mini-plays that explore issues and emotions that impact the viewer. This course will teach you to bring new life to the pieces you have. You will also learn how to share your life experiences with an audience by writing your own material.

The Lure of Spotlight, The Call of the Lord: Creating a Place for Yourself in Drama Ministry

Michelle Bruner

Aug. 5 5:00 p.m.

Room 15

Should you use your talents for God's glory in the church, as an evangelical tool, or as a light in the secular world? This course will help you discover your mission field in the creative arts arena. Explore your calling, find your focus, and discuss the pitfalls of working within the artist community. Learn how to overcome obstacles and keep your focus on God.

2004 Workshops

Basic Stanislovski From a Christian Perspective and Techniques of Sense Memory

Mark Bruner

Aug. 4 4:00 & 5:00 p.m. Room 15

Participants will learn the traditional time-tested system for bringing a deeper level of realism to their work as actors, while maintaining respect for the gifts given to them by the Lord. The Method without the head games and language. This class will provide you with the tools you need to truly use your gifts.

The Digital Image: Shooting Great Digital Photographs

James Pauls

Aug. 5 4:00 & 5:00 p.m. Room 1

In this session we will discuss and evaluate numerous techniques in digital photography. Whether you are a beginner or a pro with a digital camera there is much to learn. Bring some digital photos with you to this session and we can share ideas on how to improve our photo-taking experience.

From Worship Leader to a Leading Worshiper

Eric Mizelle

Aug. 3 4:00 & 5:00 p.m. Ballroom E

For the worship leader who wants to know the truth about his responsibility as a worship leader. This workshop will cover developing the right perspective in leading worship and understanding the responsibility to the people who are participating in the worship service.

Video Production: Hollywood Scriptwriting

Rob Hawks

Aug. 5 4:00 p.m. Room 11AB

Hollywood scriptwriting and storytelling. What's the difference between a Hollywood Blockbuster and a film that's a bust? It's all in the script! Learn simple but powerful techniques that are used to tell a story. These principles apply to video production, drama, and sermon illustrations.

Video Production Techniques

Rob Hawks

Aug. 5 5:00 p.m. Room 11AB

Every person who has ever held a video camera will want to attend this session where Hollywood camera techniques will be taught. These methods include fundamental principles used by film directors to produce camera shots that can be edited together to effectively tell a story.

Mcing as an Art Form: A Vital Communication Tool

Doc Harrill, Lon Jordan

Aug. 3 4:00 p.m. Room 3

What is an EMCEE? Doc and Lon will attempt to answer this debated question and give exciting demonstrations to inspire you. They will share practical techniques on improving your lyric writing skills and stage performance. They will share how to communicate effectively as an MC by grabbing your audience's attention, relating naturally, expressing yourself creatively, and articulating an important message that will be understood and remembered by all audiences.

Hip-hop as a Ministry: A Practical and Real Approach

Doc Harrill, Lon Jordan

Aug. 3 4:00 p.m. Room 5

Out of a decade of experience, Doc and Lon will describe creative ways to use hip-hop as a real and vital ministry. They will unmask the potential of entering into effective use of your hip-hop skill and discuss what it takes to personally prepare and realistically develop your gift. Begin entering into this field of expertise with humility, respect, and perspective.

Frequently Asked Questions

1. Where are the results posted?

Fine Arts results are displayed on the results monitors located in Exhibit Hall 1.

2. Where can I practice?

There are several practice rooms and areas available. These locations will be announced during orientation.

Practice Rooms: 400, 401, 402, 403, 406, 408, 410, 412, 415, 602.

3. Who participates in the second and/or final round?

Some categories have more than one round. Watch the Results Monitors to find out if you advance to the next round. If you advance to the next round, your name and rating will be followed by the word, Advance. Date, time of presentation and room number will be listed.

The final round, in applicable categories, will enable the adjudicators to select the National Merit Award Recipient in each official category. First-round scores are the permanent scores for all participants for the sake of records and scholarship information. Only first-round adjudicator sheets are given to participants.

4. What do I do if my presentation advances?

1. Watch the result screens in Exhibit Hall 1 (level one – ACC) for the time and location of your second and/or final round presentation.
2. Pick up your adjudicator sheets and certificates from the Fine Arts Certificate Booth. Review your adjudicator sheets to verify your scores and to make improvements in your presentation based upon the adjudicators' comments.
3. Arrive at the designated presentation room early.

5. When should I report to my presentation room?

All participants should report to their room no less than fifteen minutes before their scheduled time. You must be present when your individual or group name is called.

6. Who participates in the Celebration Service?

Members of the National Fine Arts choir and orchestra participate in the 2004 Fine Arts Celebration Service. All National Merit Award recipients will be honored at the service. Honorable Mentions from the exhibition categories will also be honored in this service.

7. What events must I attend?

The only mandatory service for all Fine Arts participants is the Fine Arts Opening Rally. The Opening Rally is August 2 and starts at 7:00 p.m. in Exhibit hall 4 in the Austin Convention Center.

The Opening Rally is a time of prayer, worship and sharing of the Word. At this time valuable information is shared regarding the Fine Arts schedule including any last-minute changes. You must be at this service.

8. What should I do if I am entered in more than one category and I notice a time conflict?

We do not allow for schedule changes. If you notice a time conflict, you may obtain a "Multiple Entry Pass" from the Fine Arts Information booth. A member of the national Fine Arts Festival staff must authorize it. You must present the pass to the room monitor in one of the conflicting performance areas. The room monitor will place you into the schedule at an earlier or later time. "Multiple Entry Passes" are issued only to participants involved in the entries. These are not issued for adults, parents, or other students who want to be in more than one place at a time.

9. What are the courtesy guidelines in rooms?

1. Never enter a presentation room when the door is closed.
2. During a presentation, all traffic and talking ceases and all attention is given to the presenter.
3. Cell phones and pagers must be turned off in all presentation rooms.
4. Please treat the Fine Arts participants and staff in each room with respect. We are all here to have a great week and most importantly, to glorify Christ in all that we do.

10. Who is allowed into the presentation rooms?

Fine Arts participants, non-participants, sponsors, parents, and guests are welcome to watch any of the Fine Arts presentations throughout the week. We respectfully ask that if space becomes an issue that you give "first priority" to those who are related to a given presenter.

Frequently Asked Questions

11. Where can I pick up my adjudicator sheets and certificates for my presentations?

Adjudicator sheets and certificates are available throughout the week at the Certificate Booth in Exhibit Hall 1. Please allow a minimum of three hours after your presentation to allow for scoring and processing. All adjudicator sheets and certificates must be picked up by Friday, August 6, before noon. The national Fine Arts office is not responsible for any adjudicator sheets and/or certificates not picked up by the participant or a representative at the national Festival. These forms will not be mailed out after the Festival.

12. How can I have a certificate reprinted?

If you receive a certificate with incorrect information or incorrect spelling please take the incorrect certificate to the Fine Arts Certificate Booth to be reprinted during operating hours. All certificate reprints should be taken care of on-site at the Festival prior to Friday, August 6, at noon.

13. How are National Merit Award recipients selected?

National Merit Award recipients are selected for each official category. These decisions are based on scores earned during the final round for larger categories and the initial round in smaller categories. The presentation with the highest score in each official category is the National Merit Award recipient.

14. How will National Merit Award recipients be notified?

The top three in each official category will be announced during the 2004 Celebration Service. Then the National Merit Award recipient will be announced. Please be at the Opening Rally for further information.

15. Where can I get something to eat nearby?

There is a food court in Exhibit Hall 1 of the Austin Convention Center.

16. When and where is the 2005 NFAF?

August 1- 6 2005. Denver, Colorado

17. How can I obtain scholarship information?

Scholarships for Fine Arts participants are available directly through many Assemblies of God colleges and universities. For information regarding scholarships, participants need to contact the representative from the college or university they are interested in attending. Please be sure to see all of the Festival exhibitors located in Exhibit Hall 1.

18. How can I audition for a scholarship?

To sign up for an audition time, participants need to visit the exhibit booths of the colleges or universities they are interested in. All exhibit booths are located in Exhibit Hall 1. The representative at each exhibit booth will be able to answer any questions regarding scholarships for his or her college or university. These representatives will let you know where and when auditions will take place.

19. How do I sign up for Bible Challenge?

The national Bible Quiz office is sponsoring a one-on-one Bible knowledge competition (Bible Challenge) Wednesday August 4 through Thursday August 5, in conjunction with the National Fine Arts Festival. This competition is open to any young person who has completed sixth through twelfth grade. Please note: Bible Quizzers who participated, or were eligible to participate, in this year's National Bible Quiz Finals are ineligible to take part in the Challenge. The winning student will receive a $1,000 scholarship for post-high school education/training. The second place individual will receive $100 scholarship. Bible Challenge registration is Monday, August 2, from 4:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. and Tuesday, August 3, from 8:00 AM to 6:00 p.m. in the Atrium of the Austin Convention Center. The challenge will take place on Level 2 of the Austin Convention Center in Mezzanine rooms 1, 2, 5.

20. When should I have my copyright information available?

The national Fine Arts office will be enforcing the copyright rule throughout the Festival week. If you are not able to present to the judges the appropriate music/script at the time of your presentation you will be disqualified. You must have your original music/script with you at the time of your presentation.

Make Your Mark!

One of the most important steps you'll ever take is choosing a college. If your dream is to make your mark in this world, you'll need a strong biblical foundation to build upon no matter what vocation you choose.

Whether God's calling on your life leads you into the mission field, a pulpit, a classroom, an office, or the courtrooms of America, choosing a school where a God-based education is at the heart of your preparation will be the best step you've ever taken.

Here at SAGU, we are committed to providing a godly environment where you will obtain not only vocational and academic expertise, but a place where you will be immersed into a spiritual atmosphere that will build this solid foundation for your future.

Your next step could be the most important one you ever take.

Kristy Starling

Dove Award Nominee Kristy Starling is making her mark in the music industry these days as one of Warner Bros. Christian's top female artists. Kristy attributes the education and opportunities she received as an SAGU student as foundational to her career in music ministry.

Visit Kristy's website at www.kristystarling.com to order her CD and to find out the concert location nearest you!

A college education is more than just books and buildings. It's about preparing for life. At Vanguard University, you can excel academically and spiritually in a caring community of friends, while getting training that puts you at the forefront of the job market.

Vanguard offers a variety of majors, outstanding faculty and small class sizes which allow for individual attention. We believe academic excellence and faith in Christ go hand in hand, which is why for over 80 years we've graduated leaders with integrity: bestselling authors, groundbreaking scientists, network television producers and more.

Vanguard can help you get a jump on the future, wherever your dreams take you. Give us a call - and let's get started.
